

DOCTORAL SUMMER SCHOOL
CENTRE FOR CORPORATE GOVERNANCE at LONDON BUSINESS SCHOOL
Thursday 10 July – Sunday 13 July 2008

A Doctoral Summer School focusing on Corporate Governance is organised by the Centre for Corporate Governance at London Business School. This event is sponsored by the Economic and Social Research Council.

Further information on London Business School's Centre for Corporate Governance can be found at <http://www.london.edu/centreforcorporategovernance.html>

Who should attend? Doctoral and post-doctoral students looking to update and share their understanding of theoretical and empirical issues in Corporate Governance. Previous exposure to doctoral level Corporate Finance is useful.

Format:

- A series of lectures taking place at the school and covering the main aspects of both theory and empirical academic research on Corporate Governance (see schedule below).
- Teaching by London Business School full-time Finance faculty: A subset of Viral Acharya, Julian Franks, Denis Gromb and Paolo Volpin.

Registration:

There is no attendance charge and participants will be provided with up to 3 nights' accommodation, including breakfast and lunch. If you wish to attend, please email your CV, including the contact details of one reference, to cg_school@london.edu by 30th May 2008. Confirmation of attendance will be sent by 6th June 2008.

Tentative Programme

Thursday 10th July (2:30-5:30):

- Introduction.
- Equity Ownership.

Friday 11th July (9:30-5:30):

- Shareholder Activism
- Takeovers.
- The Governance Role of Capital Structure.

Saturday 12th July (9:30-5:30):

- The Board of Directors.
- Law and Finance.
- Managerial Compensation Contracts.

Sunday 13th July (09:30-12:30):

- Managerial Labour Markets.
- The Political Economy of Corporate Governance.